Hello Emily,

Who do I forward this to and how do I procede? I'm not really interested in commenting on "a story about a House committee's investigation into the inadvertent release of a final report."

Thanks,

Peter

Peter,

My name is Todd Neeley and I'm a reporter with DTN/Progressive Farmer in Omaha, Nebraska. I'm writing a story about the Cancer Assessment Research Committee's work on glyphosate. I wanted to give you a chance to comment on a story about a House committee's investigation into the inadvertent release of a final report. In particular, the committee has been asking for information from EPA regarding CARC's interactions with the IARC in France. We wanted to give you a chance to comment. Please feel free to reach me at this email address. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Todd Neeley
